SCOTT
HOCHSTADT

MEET THE ALL-AMERICAN ATHLETE
WHO IS TRANSFORMING SPORTSWEAR.

#WEARELEGENDS

LEGENDS BIO SCOTT HOCHSTADT

Scott Hochstadt is building what may be the most celebrity-backed athletic wear company of the modern era. The founder and CEO of The Legends Brand represents a new breed of entrepreneur—one who walked onto the University of Maryland lacrosse team as an unknown, became an All-American, then channeled that determination into launching a Los Angeles-based brand in 2019 with an ownership group including Quavo, Baker Mayfield, Steve Nash, Matt Barnes, DeAndre Hopkins, and the Morris twins.

This isn't just a celebrity endorsement—it's a carefully orchestrated strategy blending hip-hop culture with athletic performance wear at a time when traditional sportswear giants struggle to connect with younger demographics. Hochstadt has cracked the code by creating an aspirational and authentic brand.
